WHAT'S THE TITLE OF YOUR ARTICLE, BOOK, PLAY OR MOVIE?
Don't Be Afraid to Write...

A panel discussion comprised of black alumni authors on how and why they decided to write. Exploring the pros and cons of authorship and educating others through words and illustrations.

Friday, March 2, 2018
2:30-3:45 p.m.
Butler Auditorium
Triplett Alumni Center

LEONARD BOOTHE
CEO of Boothe and Associates Real Estate Services,
Military Veteran and the author of the book,
Maximize Your Potential

RONNIE AGNEW
Executive Director:
Mississippi Broadcasting
Former Executive Editor:
The Clarion Ledger

DR. BARBARA HOWARD
Assistant Professor:
Jackson State University
Author, Wounded Sheep How to Heal Church Hurt and Wounded Sheep: How to Calm a Storm

PERVIS PARKER
General Manager: WLOO-MY35
Co-Producer of the play:
A Family That Prays Together, Stays Together

Black Alumni Reunion

For more information, contact Torie Marion White at 662-915-1868 or torie@olemiss.edu